1 The Mexican War presentation pistols of Capt James Baldwin. Pair of 9½" pepperboxes with 6 shot fluted barrels, ring triggers and scrimshawed ivory grips. Each grip bears the same inscription in block letters and script. "Presented to Capt James H Baldwin by the Franklin Guards, Brooklyn LI, Aug 19th 1847". Accompanied by copies of newspaper articles from the Brooklyn Eagle. The article of Aug 20 '47 describes an affair the previous day "Yesterday, at Fort Hamilton, the friends of Capt Baldwin... Franklin Guards... now destined for California... presented him with a pair of revolving pistols, as a testimonial of their friendship..." Another article Oct 9 1849 details a military parade and soiree, mentioning the Franklin Guards and Baldwin. Subsequent news Nov 14 '49 gives extensive details on a ball held by the Guards at Montague Hall to honor their commander "to exhibit to him the appreciation of his honorable services by welcoming his return from Mexico... having been absent three years... had the singular good fortune to escape unscathed..." Both pistols generally fine condition with even brown color. Just two minor faults to mention. On one gun the (external) trigger sear does not grip the hammer quite tight enough to rotate the barrels - it just needs to be filed to a bit sharper angle, or better yet just left alone. The second flaw is a small chip at one corner of one of the grips, not near the lettering.

These should not be confused with the rather commonplace Civil War presentation pistols. Any documented Mexican War presentation weapon is a great rarity - be it a gun, sword or knife. A matched pair of pistols such as these is hardly ever seen. 28,500.

2 Extremely rare 11" clockwork mechanical toy of Negro social reformer Sojourner Truth lecturing at a podium. Front of varnished wood base has original paper label "Woman's Rights". Complete with original wooden box 12 X 6 X 4½, having paper label that depicts the toy and the words "Woman's Rights" to either side. Only the second one of these I've ever had - the other was in my catalog about 6 years ago, and 7 callers wanted to buy it at $14,750. Toy is in superb condition - even nicer than the previous example. Box has some water stain and minor (insignificant) damage to slotted edge that holds lid. Complete with key. See ad poster item 192. 15,000.

3 Very early and excessively rare coin silver trophy cup from the beginning days of baseball. 3" handled cup signed "Duhme & Co", who were Cincinnati silversmiths. Large wreath with engraved inscription "Base Ball Tournament - Union Grounds, Cincinnati O - 4th Special Prize - Best Runner of Bases - Won by George Crighton of Holt BBC - Sept 1867". The Holts beat the Ironsides by the lopsided score of 55 to 10. Prizes were awarded for the best performances at different positions, with third baseman Crighton winning this honor. Excellent condition with nice patina - a few tiny pinhead dings noted, but hardly worth mentioning. 3,200.

4 Fine early Woodlands ball headed spiked club, 13½ long. The top of the handle is inset with 18 brass tacks, and 10 more identical tacks form a cross at the top of the ball. Single tacks on sides surrounded by circle of small steel nails. 2" pointed steel spike. Before I bought this piece I showed it to two long time experts to get their opinions (names on request). One said it dated circa 1800. The other said he wasn't sure if it was that early, but it was definitely pre 1840. Excellent condition and patina. 5,250.

5 An outstanding Texas rarity. Invitation printed on silk 5 X 8¼ for the Inaugural of Sam Houston as President of the Republic of Texas, Dec 13 1841 "Inauguration Ball - The pleasure of your company is particularly solicited at a Ball, to be given at the Capitol on Monday evening the 13th inst. Austin 10 December 1841". List of managers (18 names) printed below. A couple of horizontal separations which some fool chose to repair decades ago with scotch tape. A good conservator could remove the tape and properly lay the piece to silk or rice paper. Only a few words are actually affected the way it is. 5,000.

6 Exceptional quarter plate daguerreotype of a very early patent (proprietary) medicine seller operating from his horse drawn wagon. The seller - a top hatted man in his twenties - hands down a box of medicine to a young man standing beside the wagon. Exceptional clarity - you can read every word on the wagon except where blocked by the customer. "Boyer's Galvanic Fluid - Dr ( )le's Oriental Oil - Sov( )n Balm Pills". Two story building to rear with balcony, likely a rooming house. Previous seller thought the sky was tinted, but actually there is solarization seen in sky and on roofs and white wall to right, not affecting the important scene at all. Minor tarnish at extreme perimeter. No scratches, wipes or other flaws of any kind. A great dag! 6,750.

7 Large size 3" Andrew Jackson silver Indian Peace Medal, 100% unconditionally guaranteed genuine. With the exception of one "common" US Grant medal, it's been about 10 years since I've had a nice silver Presidential peace medal. Totally free of the gouges, nicks, dents and scratches often seen, just nice smooth even wear - making it obvious that this was actually worn for many years by a proud chief. About VF with nice patina - a beauty! 19,500.

8 Spectacular large size oil on canvas 29 X 35 in fine custom frame 35 X 41. A high eagle helmet "Red Jacket" with owners initials JP, perched atop an American flag draped over a trumpet, hose, hook and "Red Jacket BFD" belt. At left is a scene of four firemen with their steam pumper, and at right a fireman rescues a woman from a burning building. Eagle in sky with banner "Liberty and Prosperity". Signed JG Bauman. Relined, superb condition. This painting was published in American Expressions of Liberty (Mingei International Museum, 1996) and will be in the soon to be published American Visions of Freedom and Liberty (Virginia Historical Society). 32,500.

9 Superb reverse on glass mezzotint in nice (probably original) frame 16½ X 13. "America" at left with flag. "Africa" at right with bow, arrows, large medallion and holding scroll "Slave Trade Abolished 1806". Small letters bottom center "Painted by D Gerolimo". These were made in London circa 1806 - 1808 and were exported to the US to promote the anti slavery cause. Beautiful condition. I sold the last one of these I had for $4,500 to another dealer about 8 - 10 years ago. He put it in his mail auction sale and got about $11,000 for it. 6,750.

10 I have owned this great item twice. I bought it at Brimfield about 25 years ago, and sold it a few years back to a midwestern dealer. He later consigned it to auction, where I repurchased it.

Exceptional Custer portrait, oil on canvas, done by a Michigan Civil War soldier. Custom framed 24½ X 34½. Color portrait, eagle atop, RWB flags, black background. RWB painted ribbon below reads "Gen'l George A. Custer - A. A. Frain Artist". Minor ¾" tear in background, few small wrinkles in margins over the stretchers. With copy of Frain's discharge. He enlisted 12/12/61 in Company O, 15th Michigan Volunteers. Discharged 4/30/62. 13,500.

11 One of the great rarities in historical creamware. 9" Liverpool jug "The Gallant Defence of Stonington August 9 1814 - Stonington is free whilst her Heroes have one gun left". Reverse polychrome scene "United States Frigate Guerriere, Com MacDonough, bound to Russia July 1818". Owners initials CL in cartouche under spout. Very attractive black line borders. Overall condition appears perfect, but there has been some excellent professional restoration to a couple of cracks. Transfers are crisp and bold - a great scene of ships attacking this small coastal Connecticut town while the defenders fire a cannon from a fortress with an American flag flying overhead. 26,000.

12 Superb 4 page ALS of General George Armstrong Custer, Elizabethtown KY Sept 1 1872, complete with envelope addressed in Custers hand to his friend John Bulkley, Monroe Mich. Custer writes about the upcoming election and makes clear his disdain for both Grant and Greeley.

In part: "...Go to Louisville tomorrow to be on hand at the Bourbon sore head d[amne]d fool convention which meets on the 3d. Not a single prominent and respectable Democrat has yet identified himself with it. Blanton Duncan the prime mover is a regular Geo. Francis Train without knowing as much as G.F.T. does... I want to be present and look on their proceedings. The only democrat who I know personally who I have heard express himself as intending to vote for the nominee of Louisville is one who swore from the first not to vote for Greeley, but stated his intention to vote for Grant... And many well informed people think the Bourbon nominee will take more votes from Grant than from Greeley. As about all the democrats who intended to or will vote for Greeley have long since made up their minds without effect. While the disgusted ones, the last-ditch chaps - who never could, as they say, vote for Greeley, had out of spite and disappointment made up their minds to swallow Grant as their preference, but now they will leave Grant and vote for the Louisville nominee if any man can be found fool enough to accept the nomination and prominent enough to attract any votes..."

Generally VF condition, bold, bright and clean. There are two small archival tape repairs on pages 2 and 3. A couple of small brown spots on the last page. A GREAT letter! 11,000.

13 Very rare, possibly unrecorded, 7½ copper and brass powder flask. "Liberty or Death", Texas state seal, Alamo with "1836" banner, and scene of Sam Houston reclining against a tree as he accepts Santa Annas surrender. Both sides identical. Overall excellent condition, one small smooth dent near top of tree on one side. The screw-in brass spout is missing a the top, but these were replaceable anyway. Not listed in Riling. 3,500.

14 One of the rarest of all post-war political buttons, 1½ Truman behind the 8-ball. I don't think more than 2 or 3 of these have appeared on the market in the past 20 years. (White streak at upper right is reflection). Those of you who know where I got it will also know that I've marked it up less than 20%. 9,850.

15 Great 1¼ cello, elephant wearing saddle, Schoellkopf Saddlery Co, Dallas. 250.

16 Rare copper Civil War token, the so-called Pilgrim, "I Am Ready 1861/The Union Must and Shall Be Preserved". Lustrous AU-unc, one tiny spot. Fuld 147/227, very rare (R8) in copper. 550.

17 Rare 1¼ molded horn clothing button, Albert 256, portraits Lincoln-Washington "Liberty". Photo came out dark - item is sharp and bright. 600.

18 Taylor gilt brass shell in superb lustrous AU-unc condition. Reverse "Gen Taylor Never Surrenders" with list of battles. 1,000.

19 Previously unseen stanhope viewer, tiny ivory telescope with portrait Grant "I Shall Fight it Out on This Line if it Takes All Summer". 375.

20 1½ brooch in solid 10K gold, nuggets in and beside miners pan, marked "Yukon". 275.

21 Extremely rare Civil War silver corps badge engraved "War Dept Rifles - Co K - BEC". This unit was formed using employees of the War Dept, for the purpose of defending Washington DC. BEC would be the soldier's initials. T-bar pin. 1,600.

22 George Washington inaugural button, "Long Live the President' surrounding a wreath. Albert 17A. Slightly porous XF (probably dug) with original shank and partial original gilt. A sharp example. 2,350.

23 One of the greatest rarities in political clothing buttons. "Tyler & Texas" surrounding a lone star, Albert 216. To the best of my knowledge, this is the only example of this button to appear in over 20 years. I purchased it in Maine in the 1980's at the auction sale of a legendary button collection. I subsequently sold it in my mail auction catalog for $4,400, and it resided in the cabinet of an advanced midwestern collector for the next 15+ years. His collection was sold last year, but this piece was underestimated because the cataloger did not recognize its extreme rarity. I was able to reacquire it for just over the figure it brought when I sold it the first time. Choice XF (catalog photo a bit fuzzy) 6,000.

24 Rare Civil War unit badge, 1¼ German silver, "Wilders Lightning Brigade 1861-65", reverse engraved "GW Hoover - Co B 17th Ind Vol Mtd Inf". 850.

25 1¾ octagonal jasperware plaque, kneeling slave in chains. White relief figure on buff yellow ground. Probably a Wedgwood trial piece, circa 1785-90. 1,800.

26 Extremely rare Revolutionary War officers button "The Kings American Regiment". One inch brass, originally gilt, now a uniform brown color with all impressed devices fully gilt, superb appearance. No shank. The unit was raised in New York by loyalists (tories) in 1777, stationed on Long Island, then Rhode Island in 1778, later in Virginia, Charleston and Savannah. Renamed the 4th American Regt in March 1781, disbanded in 1784. 2,750.

27 Large and heavy 2" clothing button, cutout silver star with rolled gold over silver rim. Engraved "Gen Lafayette - Gen Scott 1858 - Andrew Jackson - the Travelling Agent - 1865 - Abe Lincoln". I have no idea what this is for, but it's presumably unique. XF 1,000.

28 The earliest example of "pioneer gold" coins struck using California gold. 1848 $2½ (quarter eagle) with small letters "CAL" stamped above the eagle's head. In 1848 the Military Governor Colonel RB Mason sent 230 ounces of newly mined California gold to Secretary of War William Marcy, who sent it to the Philadelphia Mint. 1389 special $2½ gold pieces were struck with the impressed letters CAL to commemorate the discovery of gold at Sutters Mill. Nearly XF/VF, probably cleaned, a pleasing example and unconditionally guaranteed genuine. 11,000.

29 No doubt unique 1781 Spanish 2 reales boldly counterstamped "POLK & DALLAS" on the obverse. Foreign gold and silver coins were legal tender in the US until 1857, and Spanish silver circulated extensively. From the 1997 McSorley sale (lot envelope included). 850.

39 A Bryan money rarity. Similar to the "comparative" pieces struck in silver 1896-1900, but this is uniface aluminum and dated 1908 "Govt dollar... coin silver... market value Nov 3 1908 40 cents". Struck by Elder, choice lustrous unc, unlisted in Schornstein. 350.

40 Scarce allegorical medal struck in silver 1782, Recognition of the Independence of the United States by Frisia. Indian maiden with broken shackles at her feet, shaking hands with medieval Frisian knight while he turns his back to Britannia. Large 44mm, silver, unc, Betts #602. 700.

Reverse from Ryans mother and brother, engraved to Hon M Maginnis, Chicago 1883. Gilt brass, pristine. The only other one of these I've seen was years ago, and it was not awarded. 400.

61 (photo probably won't come out) Red/blk tin tobacco tag, CSS Alabama. 25.

62 Never saw this before! Silvered pin "Safety Glass Sharp Shooter - CPIE Chicago 1933". This was an exhibit of unbreakable glass - apparently visitors were allowed to shoot at it! 60.

Group of 19 Wood items. The 2" Volunteer Worker is rare, as is the celluloid saw "I'm for Wood". Both varieties of the "Would Wood?" with the Capitol are scarce. Excellent condition, few tiny insignificant dust specks and mold spiders. Accompanying the dag are two Diman family letters with good content - one written from Brown by Henry to his father, the other from father to son (also while at college). Henry's brother was a professor at Brown, while he himself became US Consul at Lisbon. He died young (age 50) in 1884. 5,950.

285 One of the nicest military dags I've had in a long time. Gorgeous, crisp and flawless sixth plate of an unidentified sergeant, circa 1848-50. You can actually see the etching on the blade of the unsheathed eagle hilt sword resting against his leg. Plumed chapeau de bras with eagle insignia lies on table next to great saddle holsters with large star designs on flaps. High collared jacket with white piping, large gilt epaulettes, white pants. A great image! 3,250.

On May 12 1862, after the white officers went ashore, Smalls loaded the black crew and their families and sailed out of Charleston harbor, where he surrendered the ship to Union blockaders. He became an instant hero, later meeting with Lincoln and Stanton to promote colored enlistment. On a speaking tour in NY (when the photo was taken), he was given a gold medal by the colored citizens of NYC. Smalls was reassigned to the Planter, now in the service of the Union, and was promoted to captain in Nov 1863. After the war he was Major General of SC militia, and served five terms in Congress. A US Navy ship was named for him in 2004. 2,000.

317 Very unusual combination gun with unique ignition system. Large 16½ over-under double barrel Belgian percussion pistol with hidden 10" dagger. A single lock operates both barrels by means of a revolving piece that has two nipples to selectively fire either barrel. Small wooden stock at lock/breech area has 5 fancy engraved German silver inlays. Elaborate engraved grip in form of eagles head, entirely of German silver. Depressing a small button at the top of the handle allows the entire grip assembly to be withdrawn, and it then serves as the grip of the dagger, which was concealed between the barrels. Engraved ribbon on barrel rib is inlaid with gold lettering "LONDON", the original maker having tried to capitalize on the British reputation for quality. Engraved steel belt hook, original ramrod. Overall fine condition, light pitting to barrels as expected. This piece was sold in Norm Flayderman's catalog in 1978 for $3,450 (photocopy included). 329 Very rare matched pair early painted militia knapsacks from War of 1812. 13" square, yellow lettering & borders on orange ground. Found at the McClellan house in Gorham, Maine. Capt McClellan commanded a company in Lt Col Burbank's 16th Regiment. One on left reads "2nd Sergt, 16 Reg 3 Co", which would have belonged to Samuel Edwards. EXTRACT FROM A SPEECH OF
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
When a Member of Congress.
"Any people anywhere, being inclined, and having the power, have the RIGHT to rise up and shake off the existing government, and form a new one that suits them better. This is a most valuable, a most sacred right—a right which we hope and believe is to liberate the world. Nor is the right confined to cases in which the whole people of an existing government may choose to exercise it. ANY PORTION of such people that CAN, MAY revolutionize and make their OWN of so much of the territory as they inhabit."—Speech of Abraham Lincoln, on the resolution referring the President's Message to the various committees, Jan. 12, 1848. Appendix to Congressional Globe, page 94, 30th Congress.
